

Good morning – I would just reiterate what my husband has already said and add cross training stations as another possibility.

Huge potential, but also much commitment and maintenance of efforts for the community. Having seen the efforts that were put into the exploration of MTB trails, only to come to a stand-still, there needs to be drive, enthusiasm and a desire to embrace the opportunity from our community.

Regards, [REDACTED]